Thank you, Janet Regge

On behalf of WSASCD, we'd like to thank Janet Regge, Instructional Facilitator, Renton School District and Adjunct Faculty at Seattle University, for her service as our president for 2015-17 and past president this last year. She will be missed as she departs from the board this June after serving on the board for seven years. During her tenure on the board, Janet has focused on listening to the needs of educators in order to support students. She has encouraged the board to offer relevant professional learning opportunities that increase equity and access for all students.

Thank You Departing Board Members

Washington State ASCD exists because of the time and commitment of the educators who serve three-year terms to promote the mission of our Association. Several board members will be completing their terms in June. These board members will be honored at a special board dinner in June. The contributions of our entire Board of Directors have been centered on supporting you, as educators, so you can best serve the children of our state. Thank you to these outstanding board members!

ASCD INTERNATIONAL

For teachers, emotional intelligence and emotional resilience are foundational qualities to thriving and staying in the profession. Author, Elena Aguila, asserts that to retain more teachers, we must attend to each teacher's emotional resilience in preparation programs, in the hiring process, and in the ways we support teachers, especially novices. Read the full article titled, Emotional Resilience: The Missing Ingredient, part of a theme issue from "Bolstering the Teacher Pipeline in the May 2018 Educational Leadership, EL[®] publication. This issue explores new trends and models for teacher preparation, support, and retention, including steps schools can take to make the profession more supportive and attractive.

ASCD is dedicated to excellence in learning, teaching, and leading so that every child is healthy, safe, engaged, supported, and challenged. ASCD offers a myriad of resources to enrich you as an educator. Check out these Tools to Support the Whole Child and Making the Case for the Whole Child
