

Claire Dann

Claire graduated from Hanford High School in 2008 and went on to earn her Bachelor of Arts with Honors from the University of Washington. She completed her Masters Degree in Art History and Visual Culture at Oxford University in 2014. With over 5 years of experience in museum education and curation, Claire is now Curator for Education and Arts Programming at the REACH Museum in Richland, Washington.