

Donnetta Elsasser

Donnetta Elsasser has taught social studies at Touchet School for 21 years. Promoting quality social studies education in Southeastern Washington is important to her, and she represents the area as a member of the Washington State Social Studies Cadre of Educators. This helps her develop her own teaching skills, and facilitate other teachers as well.

Donnetta is passionate about helping students fully participate in civic life, and to sharpen their research and reasoning skills. She is National Board certified, was the Washington State Social Studies Teacher of the Year in 2006, and Washington State Civic Educator of the Year Finalist in 2013. She is thrilled to now be working with the great people at the Constitutional Rights Foundation.
