

Emily Diehl - Biography

Emily Diehl is Director of Professional Learning and Curriculum Design for Mindset Works, a social venture founded by Dr. Carol Dweck and Dr. Lisa Blackwell that works to help people grow and reach their full potential. Ms. Diehl is a national speaker and trainer in cultivating growth minded contexts in education at the classroom, school, and district levels.

Ms. Diehl contributes to the design and development of Brainology for students and to professional learning for educators through Mindset Works. She is the editor of Mindset Works blog and newsletter and often contributes to the publication. She was formerly an instructional coach and a teacher, teaching at the Secondary level in English-Language Arts and in Adolescent Intervention. She is passionate about the growth-mindset and how it applies to building capacity in educators as well as in their students.