

Dennis Stands

Dennis Stands, Owner and Instructor of Fun P.E. Guy, has over 30 years of teaching experience in the Vancouver School District. He was honored with a “Teacher of the Year Award”, and, also, has been listed multiple times in “Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers”.

For the past 16 years, Dennis has taught Physical Education classes to thousands of teachers during their summer break. Teachers earn 3 graduate level credits from Seattle Pacific University, or, 30 clock hours toward continuing education credits. The 5 day classes are held in 6 different locations in Washington and Oregon. Teachers come from as far away as India, Venezuela, the West Indies, the Aleutians Islands, as well as all across the US Mainland. He publishes a new book, and DVD, each year to accompany the class. Dennis, also, conducts P.E. Inservice Workshops for school districts nationally. His classes cover a wide range of fun activities, and games, with an emphasis on maximum participation for all ability, and age levels, while learning skills and developing teamwork. With a strong belief that we “learn best by doing”, his classes are “hands on”, with everyone participating in activities presented.
