

Joely Nye-Felt

Joely Nye-Felt is a Communities in Schools of Benton-Franklin Counties Site Coordinator at Badger Mountain and Sacajawea Elementaries. Joely has been involved in parent education and support in many capacities throughout her career in social work. Her experience includes, but is not limited to, background in single and teen parent support, domestic violence advocacy and prevention, juvenile justice and youth development, and violence prevention/intervention programming. The totality of these experiences has both informed and strengthened her approach to family engagement within a poverty/crisis centered mindset.
