Keith Mataya

Keith Mataya is a Senior Program Director for the Constitutional Rights Foundation. He received his B.A. in Government from Georgetown University and an M.A. from the University of Chicago in the Social Sciences. Keith has previously worked as a teaching associate at UCLA in Political Science, History, Public Policy and the Classics, and is a former member of the Midwest Political Science Association. He managed afterschool and summer programs in the Albany Park neighborhood of Chicago and oversaw summer sports, science, theater, and creative arts programs at UCLA. He also set up new sites in Los Angeles for a national education company focused on self-directed learning while developing and advising on programming. Keith has recently worked on creating new AP History curriculum, Common Core-aligned social science lessons and a program to combine civics with environmental science education.
