

Mandy Cathey

Mandy Cathey is the Assistant Director of Special Education for the Richland School District. She primarily oversees elementary level special education services. She has previously been an elementary principal and assistant principal within the Richland School District. Her prior teaching experiences were at the high school level in the Tri-Cities area.