

Michael Bell

Michael Bell is a Customer Success Manager at Whizz Education where the program Math-Whizz has been used in across the Richland School District. He is a former sixth grade teacher in the Seattle area after graduating from Seattle Pacific University. He has transitioned into the support role for districts/schools in Eastern Washington and Hawaii. The role includes training teachers, supporting principals, creating reports, and anything else needed by the schools.