

Randy Bjur

Randy Bjur is the Director of Bands at Pasco High School in Pasco Washington, where he also serves as department chair for Visual and Performing Art. He currently instructs 2 Symphonic Bands, Wind Ensemble, and 2 Jazz Ensembles. He holds a Master of Arts in Music Education from Eastern Washington State College (yes, he is that old). Randy has been a school band director for 38 years, with 36 of those years in high school. He taught for 21 years in Ketchikan, Alaska. During his tenure there, the Ketchikan HS Wind Ensemble auditioned for and participated in the Australia International Youth Festival. Randy has served as a guest conductor and/or adjudicator in Washington, Oregon and Alaska.