

Stephanie Button

Stephanie Button has been with the REACH since 2011. She grew up in the Tri-Cities and matriculated through the Kennewick School District. She attended Columbia Basin College before graduating with a B.A. in Anthropology from Western Washington University. At the REACH, Stephanie's, primary work has been in marrying it's exhibits to its growing educational offerings and community programs. She is currently perusing a Masters in Museum Studies.