

Tascina Chateau Penor

Tascina Chateau Penor is a school psychologist in the Richland School District. She completed her Ed.S. in school psychology at Eastern Washington University, her M.A. in counseling psychology and her B.S. in psychology at Washington State University. In addition, she received her ELL Endorsement from Heritage University. She has a passion for fostering the development of the whole child and promoting social emotional learning with consideration of cultural linguistic diverse needs. Her previous experience includes a background in mental health and social work. She currently is a member on the Richland School District's ELL committee and has focused her professional development in this area.